

Should Marijuana Be Legalized?

This reading selection is from a Taking Sides book which offers opposing views on controversial issues. There is a YES argument presented by Ethan Nadelmann from the Lindesmith Center and a NO argument presented by John Walters from the Office of National Drug Control Policy to the question above. Read the introduction and then both the YES and NO selections, highlighting what you seem to be key parts to each argument.

After reading, take a position from what you have read, as well as what we have read and discussed so far in this unit, and write a persuasive essay over the question, is homosexual conduct constitutionally protected?

Be specific by backing up your position with evidence: statistics, facts, quotes, court case decisions, studies, etc. Don't just argue your point, but also argue why the opposing view's position is wrong or misguided in your view.

Besides the reading, you should also use any readings that we have done so far in class, including relevant court cases, to give your argument substance.
